

GUIDE TO HISTORY COURSES FOR SENIOR GUEST AUDITORS

FALL 2020 SEMESTER

PLEASE REVIEW THE FOLLOWING IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

COVID-19 UPDATE FOR FALL 2020: For health and safety reasons, the University has decided that senior guest auditors will not be permitted to audit in-person classes for the fall term. Senior guest auditors may, however, audit online classes with permission from the instructor. This policy is posted on the Adult Career & Special Student Services website.

The process for obtaining permission will also be different. Beginning on August 10th, an online paperless form to request permission to enroll will be available on the senior guest auditors webpage. The UW-Madison asks that senior guest auditors do not contact the instructor or department directly requesting permission to enroll. All requests must be made through the online form, and completion of the form is all that is necessary to make your request. Please be patient as you may not receive a response about your request until close to the start of the semester.

The Department of History has created a list of online courses for which the instructor has consented to host senior guest auditors this fall starting on page 2 of this document. A complete list of courses not available for audit this semester can be found on pages 7 and 8. Some cross-listed history courses are administered by departments other than the History Department. On pages 8 and 9 you will find a list of courses for which another department is the primary administrator. When requesting permission to enroll for these courses, please refer to the table on pages 8 and 9 for the appropriate department to list on your online form.

It is the Department of History's policy that auditors cannot enroll or hold a seat in a course prior to the first day that the course meets. This year, fall instruction begins on September 2nd. If you submit your form and approval is granted before the semester begins, please note that you will still not be able to enroll until the first day that the course meets.

Please direct any questions about history courses to Sophie Olson, solson25@wisc.edu.

If you have questions about your senior guest auditor status or need help applying to become a senior guest, please contact the Adult Career & Special Student Services Office by email at advising@dcs.wisc.edu, or by phone at (608) 263-6960.
