Please note: If you see a course that has LEC (lecture) location that is on campus it is not eligible for auditing.
Synchronous online courses VS asynchronous online courses

- Synchronous courses have a specific date and time listed under ‘Day/Time’. These classes meet online at a specific date and time.

  - Example:

    !Art History 201: Sections

- Asynchronous courses will have ‘ONLINE’ under Day/Time or ‘Sep 2 – Dec 10 (A1)’ to indicate there is not a specific date and time they meet. Asynchronous courses may or may not have a recorded lectures, instead there may be readings, videos, online activities, group work, etc. for their curriculum.

  - Example:

Finding instructor provided content:

If both LEC (lecture) and DIS (discussion) are listed, select DIS (discussion) to see instructor provided content link or class number.

If LEC (lecture) only course, select the LEC section for more info. (Not all courses will have instructor provided content.)
Once you find a course to audit . . . . .

• Write down the course information (i.e. subject, category number, course name, date & time).

• If you would like to save courses of interest within Course Search and Enroll and are admitted for the term you are searching, login using your NetID and password.

• Once your enrollment date and time has come, and after you have received permission to enroll, follow the enrollment instructions listed on the senior guest auditor webpage under ‘Enroll in class’ https://acssss.wisc.edu/senior-guest-auditors/
Additional Notes:

• If you are interested in auditing a History or History of Science course, please review the History Department Senior Guest Auditor page at https://history.wisc.edu/courses/senior-guest-auditors/

• A PDF copy of the full course list or a condensed ‘courses for your consideration’ list can be found on our web page https://acsss.wisc.edu/senior-guest-auditors/ under “Search for classes”

• A course listed as closed or waitlisted does not automatically mean it cannot be audited. There may be credit course enrollment limitations, but may have enough room for auditors.
We hope you found these instructions to be helpful in your search for courses!
